

Memorial headstone dimensions

Approved materials

Any combination of solid granite, granite or bronze plaques, concrete – either plastered or tiled with ceramic or granite tiles.

Installation

All installations are to be carried out by a registered monumental mason or a person authorized by the Cemetery Manager and must comply with the Burial & Cremation Act 1964 and the following criteria

Lawn cemetery	All memorials must face the front and be 150mm (or more) in from the front and back edge of the berm
Compulsory regulation base	1150mm wide x 500mm deep x 350mm high. Flower holder(s) optional, must be recessed into or attached to top of base
Recumbent desk	(Wedge design) 1100mm wide x 250mm high x 480mm deep
Upright headstone	1100mm wide x 950mm high x 250mm deep
Total Maximum height	1100mm

Ash berm - cremation	All memorials must face the front and be 150mm (or more) in from the front and back edge of the berm. A minimum of 40mm to be left between back of headstone and back edge of base; all memorials must have a regulation base
Compulsory regulation base	575mm wide x 300mm deep x 100mm high, 1 flower holder optional, recessed into left side
Flat plaque	400mm wide x 250mm deep x 25mm high
Recumbent desk	(Wedge design) 500mm wide x 250mm high x 250mm deep
Upright headstone	500mm wide x 250mm deep x 650mm high
Total maximum height	750mm

Children's Forest Glade – Maunu – burial or cremation	Memorials must face the front and be 150mm (or more) in from the front and back edge of the berm. Flower holders can be recessed into the base, or with a smaller base, placed alongside
Base	Up to 600mm wide x 300mm deep x 100mm high (plot sizes vary, so must be pre-measured)
Recumbent desk	(Wedge design) 380mm wide x 230mm high x 230mm deep
Upright headstone	450mm wide x 450mm high x 150mm deep
Total maximum height	550mm

Children's Triangle – Maunu – burial or cremation	All memorials must face the front and be set 75mm (or more) in from the front and back edge of the berm. A flower holder can be recessed into the desk or with a smaller memorial, placed alongside
Flat plaque	450mm wide x 450mm deep x 25mm high
Recumbent desk	(Wedge design) 450mm wide x 450mm deep x 125mm high
Total maximum height	125mm

Any other area	The sexton will be able to advise you. Please check before purchasing a memorial
-----------------------	--