

Appendix 11 - Daylight Angles

This Appendix indicates the method of calculating Daylight Angles. The Appendix is referred to in rules for the relevant Environments relating to buildings and aerals.

H = Maximum height of building or aerial and/or aerial support structure at any point.

Hd = Horizontal distance from boundary to point being measured.

