Sign parks - terms and conditions

The following is a list of terms and conditions for the display of temporary signs for School Galas, Concerts, Meetings, Parliamentary and Local Body elections.

Temporary signs may be displayed subject to the following conditions:

- 1 Temporary signs only for Parliamentary and Local Body Elections and community events such as school galas, concerts, public meetings and the likes may be permitted on the designated areas.
- 2 Each sign board is to be a square 1.2m by 1.2m to fit within the grooves provided on the sign frames, and provided by the applicant at the applicant's expense.
- 3 Signs 1.2m by 2.4m are permitted, but will require two adjacent sites to be booked and will attract a fee for each site.
- 4 Signs are to be painted and completed off-site before inserting in the frame.
- 5 Allocation of space will be on a 'first in, first served' basis.
- 6 If there is a sign on the space allocated to your organisation at the start of your booked time, you may remove it, place it on the ground and replace it with your sign.
- 7 Community event signs (per 1.2m x 1.2m site) may be inserted for a maximum of three weeks with removal no more than two days after the event.
- 8 Parliamentary and Local Body Election signs (per 1.2m x 1.2m site) shall not be erected more than two (2) months before the elections. The fee covers the entire election period.
- 9 Fees Please refer to Council's Schedule of Fees and Charges for current fees.
- 10 Designated sign park areas
