

Building consent amendment application

Amended plans to be returned to

		Customer Check	Office use
Checklist		⊠ Yes	🗵 No
1	Was building consent applied for through Council only (Note - staff check text notes for certifier)
2	Has building consent been issued (if not, amendment can be added to original)
3	Code Compliance Certificate yet to be issued
4	Amendment is similar to use (If rooms being changed around within footprint e.g. bathrooms becomes laundry and vice versa then amendment is ok, but if garage becomes rumpus room or spare space is to become toilet/shower etc, this would not qualify for amendment)
5	Amendment contained within footprint of building and no change to height, daylight angles etc as per original submitted plans. (If not the compliance manager or building officer is to decide). Duty planner may be required.
6	Original application less than 1 year old (If older than 1 year compliance manager or building officer to decide)
7	Is value being added to building consent (if so new building consent required)
8	Does the original project involve Restricted Building Works? Does amendment alter RBW elements? (If so, application to include another Design Memorandum to cover amended works) See guidance note on reverse.

BC Amendment Guidance Notes:

Restricted Building Works:

If the Building Consent proposed to be amended was applied for on or after 1 March 2012 and contains Restricted Building Works (RBW), any proposal to amend RBW elements must be accompanied by a Design Memorandum covering the amended elements. The memorandum should be completed to reflect the changes to the project – i.e. change to cladding, structural changes, window/ door changes, etc.
